

Element C: Presentation and Justification of Solution Design Requirements:

Our main requirement is to successfully design and create an air hose that will blow away debris and dust from the main work zone. This will include designing the mount that will hold the air hose nozzle onto the CNC machine, and an air compressor.