

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

Element C: Presentation and Justification of Solution Design Requirements

Design Requirement #1 (HIGH Priority)

Can firmly hold SM58 mic transmitter.

It is the microphone transmitter that will be used for our project.

Was the main need for the mic holder.

High priority because a secure microphone holder was part of our design criteria.

Design Requirement #2 (HIGH Priority)

Looks like an authentic television microphone.

It needs to look authentic to create a genuine feeling of what it is like to be on television

Was also a main need for the mic holder.

High priority because an authentic microphone holder was part of our design criteria.

Design Requirement #3 (HIGH Priority)

Comfortable to hold.

An uncomfortable microphone would make the holder not want to hold it.

Stakeholder agreed.

High priority because a comfortable microphone holder was part of our design criteria.

Design Requirement #4 (HIGH Priority)

Weighs less than 2 pounds.

Microphones are lightweight. Handheld devices that should not exceed a weight of 2 pounds.

Stakeholder agreed.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

High priority because a lightweight microphone holder was part of our design criteria.

Design Requirement #5 (HIGH Priority)

Less than 3x3x15 inches in volume

The microphone would look disproportional and awkward if it was too big.

Stakeholder agreed.

High priority because a smaller microphone holder was part of our design criteria.

Design Requirement #6 (LOW Priority)

Able to have a mic flag fit over it.

Mic holders need mic flags to look authentic and to promote brand.

Stakeholder and mic flag designing team agreed.

Low priority because mic flags are important, but they are not part of our design criteria.

Design Requirement #7 (LOW Priority)

Durable material.

Not malleable enough to have noticeable dents if damaged, while not firm enough to crack at extreme temperatures.

Stakeholder agreed.

Low priority because more designs can easily be 3D Printed, and it is the only material we have access to anyway.