

Element E

E.1 we had to measure out the diameters of the holes we cutted out and the diameter of the pipes, we also had to use engineering to know how we were going to build the tower and use a creative mindset. We also had to use certain tools and materials for the project to work.