

ELEMENT H

Our group's highest priority criteria for this project are the handle, button, and material used to create our prototype.

Our group's highest priorities can be tested in various ways such as the materials used, we can test the durability of the materials used for our project by taking our dispenser outside through the extreme weather conditions of Greenbelt as well as test the durable by measuring how many lacrosse balls our dispenser can carry which is 10+ balls.