

PART J. Documentation of External Evaluation

We communicated through email once completing the design for the stickers, where we received positive feedback. We attempted to communicate through email and phone calls to schedule an in-person meeting for evaluation of the mural design, but failed to receive a response.

