

Element G: Construction of a Testable Prototype

Modeling our CAD after our chosen rain barrel we were going to ask the school to fund. We used this model to check the size and dimensions of the space we were planning to put it in.

After checking this model and sending it to our person who actually worked in the garden we got their approval.